Longchen Rabjam, Drimé Özer (1308–1364)

His name commonly shortened to Longchenpa, Longchen Rabjam was a major teacher in the Nyingma school of Tibetan Buddhism. Longchenpa is widely considered to be the single most important writer on the Dzogchen (Great Perfection) teachings. He is credited with more than 250 works, both as author and compiler, among which are the Longchen Nying-tik Ngondro and Teachings, and the text to be taught during this visit from Gangteng Rinpoche, The Trilogy of Natural Ease.

H.H. Gangteng Tulku Rinpoche

Founder and spiritual director of YESHE KHORLO USA, Gangteng Tulku Rinpoche is the 9th Body Emanation of King Tertön Pema Lingpa (1450-1521) and a primary lineage holder of the Peling Tradition of the Nyingma Lineage. Pema Lingpa, the immediate reincarnation of Longchenpa, was born in Bumthang, Bhutan, and taught and revealed hidden texts throughout Tibet and Bhutan. Gangteng Rinpoche studied for many years with H.H. Dudjom Rinpoche, receiving from him all empowerments and key instructions of the Peling Lineage; with H.H. Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche; and with H.H. Chatrul Sangye Dorje Rinpoche. For over 400 years the seat of the Gangteng Tulkus has been the Gangteng Gonpa in the Phobjika Valley of Bhutan.
